

COMMUNITIES IN CHARGE

Funding Wave 4

Communities in Charge is California's light-duty electric vehicle (EV) charging incentive project funded by the California Energy Commission's Clean Transportation Program. Funding Wave 4 aims to meet the growing demands of the multi-family housing sector.

Multi-family housing and adjacent sites within 1/8 mile. Student housing and workforce housing are eligible!

Rolling Application Processing: August 5, 2025 to February 27, 2026.

Easier and faster funding in the form of a flat rebate.

Prioritized Applications

- Project sites in disadvantaged communities, low-income communities, and serving tribes will be prioritized in the application process.
- Project sites ready for installation are also prioritized.
